Boulder, April 25, 1925

STATE U. SWIMMERS BEAT D.U. TEAM, 49-24, BEFORE LARGEST CROWD OF THE 1925 SEASON

Making a clean sweep of the fancy diving event, taking the relay by forfeit and displaying considerable class, the University of Colorado swimming team, headed by Capt. Austin, defeated Denver University swimmers 49 to 24, in the Colorado U. gymnasium pool here Friday night. State is arranging other meets this season in the swimming pool.

Philleo, Tribble, and Dawson won first, second and third in the fancy diving event, shutting out the Pioneers. In the plunge for distance, Waite plunged to 49 feet, 3 inches. Denver U. forfeited the relay as Walker suffered with cramps.
